2018 Dr. Seuss Week at Choptank Elementary

In celebration of Dr. Seuss Week and his birthday on Friday, March 2, 2018, staff members from the Walmart in Cambridge came to Choptank Elementary School to read Dr. Seuss stories to the two Pre-Kindergarten classes. Not only were the students read to, but the readers also donated a variety of Dr. Seuss books, notebooks, poster/project boards, and folders to the Pre-Kindergarten classrooms.

A huge thank you goes to the four Walmart employees Christina Ashton, Tracy Ruark, Amanda M. and Amy Baklarz for coming out and investing their time with Choptank students.
