

Dorchester County
Public Schools
Every Child A Success!

SUPERINTENDENT'S UPDATE

Diana L. Mitchell., Ed.D., Superintendent

DATE: April 11, 2018

Amber Aaron Wins VFW Maryland Middle School Teacher of the Year

North Dorchester Middle School teacher Amber Aaron has been named the 2017-2018 VFW Maryland Middle School Teacher of the Year. Nominated by a community member, she won Federalsburg VFW Teacher of the Year and was selected to represent VFW District 4 before winning the statewide competition. Ms. Aaron was chosen for her activities in the school, her community involvement, and her dedication to finding new ways to help her students grow and give back to their community.

An 8th-grade math and science teacher at NDMS, Ms. Aaron also coaches the award-winning cheerleaders and pom-pom team at North Dorchester High School and is the Dorchester County Public School First Class Teacher of the Year.

From L-R: Leslie Tolley, Principal of NDMS; Valerie Lomax, Social Studies teacher at NDMS and Ms. Aaron's mother; Amber Aaron, VFW Maryland Middle School Teacher of the Year; Mickey Lomax, Ms. Aaron's stepfather; Rev. Ron James, VFW State Chaplain; and Brian Lankford, VFW District 4 Commander (Photo by Dustin Holt, Dorchester Star)