DCTC Seniors Receive CNA Pins

Seventeen Dorchester Career and Technology Center seniors in the Medical Services program have received their Certified Nursing Assistant pins in a ceremony at the school. Family and friends watched as the new CNAs were presented with pins by the faculty or by a loved one or mentor chosen by the graduate.

Speakers at the event included Sen. Addie Eckhardt, who is also a Registered Nurse – Psychiatric Clinical Nurse Specialist, DCTC Principal Kermit Hines, Medical Services program instructor Kastine Farmer, and Superintendent of Schools Dr. Diana Mitchell. Members of the class also spoke, with Breann Warner delivering the keynote address.

Those members of the Class of 2018 receiving their CNA pins were Jenna Ausmussen, Tonia Cephas, Ja'Kayla Collins, Rebecca Dougherty, Daibriana Elliott, Leila Gibbons, Keturah Hill, Brianna McTague, Kayla Richards, Madison Schuyler, Shania Shockley, Jocelyn Spies, Keysha Torres, Georgie Turner, Breann Warner, Me'Aziah Wilson, and Chyna Wongus.
