“A Picture Is Worth A Thousand Words”!

Maggie Hubbard, a 6th grade student at North Dorchester Middle School, has been selected as a winner of the Maryland Council on Economic Education’s annual financial literacy poster contest. The contest, for students in 1st through 8th grade, was developed to help teachers stimulate interest in learning basic economic and personal finance concepts by giving students an opportunity to creatively demonstrate their understanding of economic concepts.

Maggie, one of 16 winners, will receive a $50.00 prize and is invited to attend the Student Achievement Awards luncheon on May 16th at Towson University. She is pictured below with her social studies teacher Valerie Lomax.
