Katie Mae's Sponsors Sandy Hill Elementary School's Student of the Week Program

Katie Mae's Country Restaurant in Cambridge has partnered with Sandy Hill Elementary School to sponsor the school's Student of the Week program, helping teachers acknowledge and reward students for being good citizens in class. Every week a student from each grade is recognized and receives a t-shirt and gift certificate for a free meal at Katie Mae's.

Katie Smith, owner of Katie Mae's, recently visited Sandy Hill to help celebrate recent Students of the Week, congratulating the students and presenting them with their gifts.

Sandy Hill principal Vaughn Evans expressed appreciation for Ms. Smith's support of the school and its students and said, "It takes a village, and we are certainly appreciative of all our partners and their support."
