North Dorchester High School Choral Ensemble Performs at Morgan State University for the Maryland State Choral Festival

The North Dorchester High School Choral Ensemble received an overall rating of ‘excellent’ at its recent performance at the State Choral Festival at Morgan State University. On one component of the festival, sight reading, the Ensemble received a ‘superior’ rating.

Pieces performed by the Ensemble included “Let Their Celestial Concerts” by G.F. Handel, “Ave Verum” by W.A. Mozart, and “Striving after God” by Undine Smith Moore.

As a result of their rating, the students received medals. Choral Director and music teacher Sabra Steward said she is “extremely proud of the rating achieved as well as the focus, discipline, and never-give-up attitude of the group”.
