North Dorchester Music Students Perform Winter Concert

The North Dorchester High School Band and Chorus presented their annual Winter Concert on December 19, 2017, at 7:00 p.m. The Band presented their marching routine and music from the parade season as well as “This Christmas” with singers Trinity Cephas and Seth Talley, “Winter Holiday,” and “The Polar Express.” Superintendent Dr. Diana Mitchell played flute duets with Mrs. Sabra Steward, Choral Director and students Kadie Laramore and Nicole Waples. The Chorus sang “The Hope of Christmas” featuring the Seniors, “Mary Did You Know?”, “Gloria”, “Let Their Celestial Concerts”, “Hallelujah” by Leonard Cohen as sung by Pentatonix, “Mary Had a Baby/Joyful, Joyful”, ending with the traditional “Hallelujah Chorus”. The Band and Chorus send best regards to all in attendance for the support given from the Dorchester Board of Education and the community. Special thank you to Dr. Mitchell, Mrs. Sorrells and Dr. Hosch for championing music at North Dorchester High School.
