Choptank Elementary School Receives School Supplies

On Friday, August 25, 2017, Choptank Elementary School’s Pre-Kindergarten and Kindergarten teachers received a large donation of school supplies to be provided to students who are in need. The donation was made by the Backpack Alliance of Dorchester County, which includes members from the following local organizations: Dorchester County Judy Center, Dorchester County Early Childhood Advisory Board, Anchor Point, Dorchester County Department of Social Services, Local Management Board, Dorchester County Public Library, Associated Black Charities, and the Dorchester Retired Educators Association. Donated supplies included crayons, colored pencils, scissors, glue sticks, rulers, notebooks, paper, and much more! Teachers are appreciative of the donations and are excited and eager to provide them to their students who started school on Thursday, September 7, 2017.

Pre-Kindergarten teachers Ms. Bivens and Mr. Ward with their supplies.

Ms. Willey, School Counselor, and Mr. Alan McCrae from Anchor Point.

Kindergarten teachers Mrs. Mero, Mrs. Beaven, and Mrs. Glynn with their supplies.
