Home Town Hero's Visit the Dorchester County Public Schools Gentlemen's Club

The Dorchester County Gentlemen's Club thanks Mr. Lamont Foster, Mr. Armah Dashiell, and Mr. Gelson Brooks for empowering our youth on Tuesday April 2, 2019. Mr. Lamont Foster is a retired Army Specialist. Mr. Foster explained the importance of having good character, focusing in school, and how he was able to overcome many obstacles in his life. Next, Mr. Armah Dashiell is an entrepreneur of Community Transporter LLC and music producer. Mr. Dashiell stressed how his childhood difficulties have fueled him to want more and give back to his community. He talked about the importance of the young gentlemen following their dreams, having good character, and running a successful business through the ups and downs. Lastly, Mr. Gelson Brooks is the Director of Operations and Safety for Dorchester County Public Schools. Mr. Brooks stressed the importance of professionalism, perseverance, and presenting your best for the job. As a part of his lesson Mr. Brooks showed our young gentlemen how to tie a tie and donated a tie to each student. The Dorchester County Gentlemen's Club thanks all three men that came to empower our youth. Staff of the young Gentlemen's club include Mr. Dwayne Lovett (program coordinator), Mr. Donnell Pinder Jr. (M.L.M.S. advisor), Ms. Karlene Walker M.L.M.S. advisor), Mr. LaShawn Tucker (C-SD advisor), Mr. Michael Dorrenbacher (C-SD advisor), Mr. Greg Sampson (C-SD advisor), Mr. Omar Bolden (NDHS advisor).
