DCPS to Host ALICE Family Nights

Dorchester County Public Schools is moving into its next phase of implementing the ALICE protocol (Alert, Lockdown, Inform, Counter, Evacuate) for school safety by hosting a series of Family Nights during which school administrators will discuss how the ALICE curriculum and age-appropriate training will be presented to students. This follows almost two years of DCPS staff training, in conjunction with law enforcement, to help prepare for and respond to a critical violent incident.

The schedule for the Family Nights is as follows:

Monday, November 18, 6 p.m. – At Warwick Elementary School, for parents of students at Hurlock, Vienna, and Warwick Elementary.

Tuesday, November 19, 6 p.m. – At Cambridge-South Dorchester High School, for parents of students attending Mace's Lane Middle, South Dorchester (grades 6-8), DCTC, and C-SDHS.

Wednesday, November 20, 6 p.m. – At North Dorchester High School, for parents of students at North Dorchester Middle School and North Dorchester High School.

Thursday, December 5, 6 p.m. – At Choptank Elementary, for parents of students attending Maple, Choptank, Sandy Hill, and South Dorchester (PreK-5th grade).
